

Please ensure that the airwaves are used properly and not dominated by large conglomerates. It is an imperative in maintaining our democracy that we be informed of all that is going on in our country, in order to make informed decisions on voting day. You have a great responsibility. Please honor it by not letting large corporations take over the airwaves and use them to promote their own views and values in exclusion of the truth.